CoDA Retreat 2016 in The Netherlands

24, 25 & 26 June

“Let Go and Let God/Laat Los en heb Vertrouwen”

We are very happy to announce that there will be another CoDA retreat again in the Netherlands this year!

The weekend will be full of meetings, recovery, fellowship and fun. The retreat is bilingual (English and Dutch). This means in practice that the main language is English, and that at all times Dutch can be spoken. In this way, the retreat is also accessible to fellows from abroad. There is also the possibility to have solely Dutch meetings during the weekend.

Everyone with a desire for healthy and loving relationships with others and themselves is welcome.

The weekend starts on Friday 24th June 5 p.m. until Sunday June 26th June 4 p.m.

It is held In the Spiritual Centre “Heel en Al” in Schoorl, The Netherlands, located in the woods and near the sea. The accommodation is a former youth hostel with basic facilities. Each dorm has +6 simple (bunk) beds. There are two small rooms with two single beds each. There is also a small camping ground with space for three tents. For more information see <http://www.heelend.nl>

Prices will be posted in February, registration will be possible from then onwards.

“Looking forward to meeting you in Schoorl”!
